PUMA's Supervisory Board elects H  lo  se Temple-Boyer as Chair of the Supervisory Board

Herzogenaurach, Germany, May 11, 2022 - The Supervisory Board of PUMA SE has elected H  lo  se Temple-Boyer as Chair of the Supervisory Board at its meeting in April. She succeeds Jean-Fran  ois Palus, who had previously resigned as Chair of the Supervisory Board of PUMA SE, effective at the time the Annual General Meeting on 11 May 2022 ends. H  lo  se Temple-Boyer has been a member of the Board since 2019 and is a member of the Audit Committee.

Jean-Fran  ois Palus will keep his mandate as a member of the Supervisory Board to ensure a smooth handover to H  lo  se Temple-Boyer. The resignation of his mandate as a full member of the Supervisory Board will follow as soon as the Supervisory Board has found a successor. Jean-Fran  ois Palus is no longer available for re-election in 2023. He has been a member of the company's Supervisory Board as a shareholder representative since 2007.

The Management Board welcomes H  lo  se Temple-Boyer as the new Chair of the Supervisory Board and is looking forward to a successful, constructive and trustful cooperation.

"It is an honor for me to succeed Jean-Fran  ois Palus in the responsible position of Chair of the Supervisory Board," said H  lo  se Temple-Boyer. "It is also due to him that PUMA is well positioned and well prepared for the challenges of the future. For this, he deserves our thanks on behalf of the entire Supervisory Board."
